LAST ARK SIGNATURE JOURNAL

GREEN EDITION

PREFACE

I give all praise and thanks to God for his grace to write this wonderful spiritual daily piece to positively change and morally restore the children to the lord.

God has promised in his woes to give all his children total restoration and fulfilment of purpose regardless of parental wrong, social disorderliness and personal life inappropriacy Joel 2:25-27.

We must stay far away from sin, social immoral activities and all appearance of the devil (1Thess. 5:22), we are ambassador of Christ and such our lives must always glorify.

Beloved, as we remain faithful in offering our bodies as a living sacrifice unto the lord (Hebrew 10:22), we must also use every platform available to us to spread and propagate the gospel of Christ to the end of the earth as the lord as mandated (Acts 13:47).

I trust that thus devotion for all the college and high school students worldwide will serve as a guide, direction in your walk with God this year, encouraging you to fellowship more earnest and intimately with him.

I charge you to live solely for God this year and watch as all his promises begin to come to pass in your life.

I pray that you shall experience the grace and fruitfulness of God in great abundance in all aspect of your life this year and beyond.

Character in other hand means an action of a person in picture or word relation with the people; putting this two together in a person is not good and must not be found with you.

MESSAGE.

Having a friend is totally different from having a godly companion in relationship. Godliness is an express way of fitting for the divine allocation and manifestation of the Lord glory.

Friendship is a relationship that involves two or more people heading for a common goal and similar desire. You as a child of God is not advice to be in a godly relationship with anybody regardless of how smart such individual is, how intelligent, social upright on any cause in life because the end is distratrous and destructive.

Some may want to ask some direct question on who is right to be a friend with in the school setting, community and hostel; it is a very good question that needed to be answered with proves for an ungodly relation will lead into regret and sadness.

The sons of Rechabites have a strong bond of godly relationship which emanated from parental training and upbringing, the father have given a serious warning about who to hang around with and who their friends must be regardless of the parental capacity of such individual. If such is not godly and morally upright, it is a no-go-area, meaning it is not advisable to befriend such individual.
